DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Again, Claim 1 is indefinite because the scope of the phrase “thaumatin-like proteins” is unknown. While applicant states that Medline provided 37 references, the date of such references must be before applicant’s filing date. Further, these references were not supplied in applicant’s Response. Therefore, the rejection is maintained.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-7 and 9-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by barley wort in light of Fox (USPN 5,725,901) for the reasons set forth in the last Office Action.

Again, applicant claims products that are disclosed to be obtainable by extracting barley (Hordeum vulgare) with water, which is a brewer’s wort (generally used in making beer). While applicant argues that the cited art is silent as to the thaumatin binding properties that are inherently found in barley extracts, the fact that applicant has recognized another advantage which would flow naturally from following the suggestion of the prior art cannot be the basis for patentability when the differences would otherwise be obvious. See Ex parte Obiaya, 227 USPQ 58, 60 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1985).

Further, the Office does not have the facilities for examining and comparing applicant's product with the product of the prior art in order to establish that the product of the prior art does not possess the same material structural and functional characteristics of the claimed product. In the absence of evidence to the contrary, the burden is upon the applicant to prove that the claimed inventions are functionally different than those taught by the prior art and to establish patentable differences. See In re Best, 562 F.2d 1252, 195 U.S.P.Q. 430 (CCPA 1977); Ex parte Gray, 10 U.S.P.Q.2d 1922, 1923 (BPAI)

With regard to arguments addressing an obviousness rejection, because no obviousness rejection is pending, no response is deemed necessary.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
